

Snakes Alive!

The Snakes & Ladders Education Game

Give them a
LEG UP
and help us
WIN THE GAME!

START

FINISH

WATER WOE
You miss your lessons because you have to fetch water 2km away

RAIN PAIN
Your makeshift class under a mango tree is abandoned because of rain

HALE AND HEARTY!
Your school gets a new first aid kit and a Health Club is started

CROP FLOP
You have to miss school to help your parents save their failing harvest

TAP TO CLAP
The tippy-tap means clean hands after using the latrine and disease is kept at bay

TEXTBOOK TRAUMA
Learning is slow because you share a textbook with three other children

JIGGER JEOPARDY
You sit on the dusty floor and get bitten by jigger fleas. It's so painful you can't concentrate.

DIFFERENT CLASS
Your teacher has been on a training course and now you'll get a better education

MEAL DEAL
Your school has new kitchen facilities meaning healthy school lunches are available

TOWEL TROUBLE
You have to go home you don't have a sanitary towel

SAFE & SOUND
Your new classroom has made lessons safe and comfortable

UTTERLY ROOFLESS!
A collapsed roof means you have to sit in the burning sun

LIFE'S A PITCH
Your new football and netball equipment has arrived

TANKS A LOT
Your new water tanks are providing clean water all year round

Be the first to get a great education, with the help of BUILD AFRICA'S LADDERS.

But beware of those SNEAKY SNAKES that lie in wait to ambush you!

You will soon see that there are so many setbacks to learning in a rural African school. These are the obstacles that we are helping our school communities to overcome.

We hope you enjoy the game and that it helps you understand the daily challenges that Kenyan and Ugandan schoolchildren face.

Cut out to play

Providing a good education is so much more than game.

But the various problems and solutions to education in our schools can seem like snakes and ladders.

With your help we can give the schoolchildren of rural Kenya and Uganda a real leg up.
TOGETHER WE CAN WIN THE GAME!
